Incident at Marble Valley Correctional Center Resolved

Waterbury, Vt., Dec. 4, 2019 – Today at approximately 10:45 a.m., two inmates at the Marble Valley Correctional Center in Rutland were barricaded in a cell and refused to comply with staff direction. The Department of Corrections’ (DOC) Crisis Intervention Team and Special Response Teams were activated and the incident was successfully resolved, without injury to staff or inmates, at 2:45 p.m.

During the incident, all Vermont DOC facilities were placed on a precautionary lock-down while DOC resources were focused on the Rutland facility. Operations at the facilities have since returned to normal.
