Escaped Inmate Remains at Large

JACKSON – The search remains underway for an inmate who escaped Friday from the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman.

Dillion Williams, 27, MDOC #163974, is a black male of medium build with brown eyes and black hair. Williams is 6 feet 2 inches tall, weighing 175 pounds with a light brown complexion.

Williams is serving 40 years for residential burglary and aggravated assault in Marshall County. He is one of two inmates discovered missing during an emergency count about 1:45 a.m. Saturday.

The other inmate, David May, 42, MDOC #55271, was captured early Sunday morning. A black truck used in the escape was also recovered Sunday.

The MDOC's K9 and ERT with assistance from state and local law enforcement are searching for Williams.

Anyone with information about Williams or know of his whereabouts should contact the MDOC at 662-745-6611, the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation at 601-987-1530, or the nearest law enforcement agency.
